

CYPRUS AIRPORTS DUTY FREE WINS MAJOR INTERNATIONAL AWARD FOR THE NEW LARNAKA AIRPORT TERMINAL

Cyprus Airports Duty Free beat off stiff competition from Sydney, Kuala Lumpur and Frankfurt, to lift the coveted “Best New Airport Shop Opening 2009” for the fantastic new shopping area at Larnaka International Airport.

At a glitzy awards ceremony on Friday night (April 23rd) in London, the major accolade was presented to CTC-ARI Airports for what was described as a “model” shopping area for airports around the world.

The award was announced to an audience of over 300 worldwide airport executives and is the first major award for the New Larnaka Terminal.

Danny Galvin, General Manager, CTC-ARI Airports commented “We are delighted to receive this major award for the world-class shopping area at the New Larnaka International Airport. Although we were the smallest airport in the shortlist, the fantastic facilities in the New Larnaka Terminal are as good, if not better, than any airport in the world. All the staff of Cyprus Airports Duty Free have worked extremely hard in achieving this award and our feedback from passengers has been equally positive”.

For further information on the awards visit:

<http://www.dfnionline.com/event/The-DFNI-Global-Awards-for-Travel-Retail-Excellence-2010-24458.html>

The new Larnaka Airport Terminal features over 5,000 square metres of shopping choice and hosts many brands that are exclusive in Cyprus. Passengers can browse in the largest perfume and cosmetics area in any European Airport.

Plus this summer, Cyprus Airports Duty Free is running an amazing World Cup competition – with tickets to the world Cup Final and a Huyundai iX35 up for grabs.

30 April 2010

In the picture Martin Mullen, Retail & Marketing Manager, CTC-ARI Airports Ltd accepting the award in London.